

Are You False?

Written by Bishop S. C. Johnson

If you haven't believed it, obeyed it, and received it according as it is written here you are false.

If you are a preacher and haven't obeyed and believed this you are a false prophet and a hypocrite.

If you are a member and haven't believe and obeyed this you are a hypocrite.

If you haven't obeyed Acts 2:38, by repenting and being baptized in Jesus name you are false.

If you haven't received the Holy Ghost speaking in tongues according to Acts 2:4 you are false.

If you don't believe that Jesus Christ is the Almighty God according to Rev. 1:8, Isaiah 9:6 you are false and an idol worshipper.

If you call yourself a Christian and reject the new birth that consists of water and spirit as in John 3rd chapter, 5th verse, you are false and a hypocrite,

If you tell the people to bow their heads and accept Christ right where you are and don't tell them like Peter told them on the day of Pentecost in Acts 2:38, you are false.

You may preach and convert the world in your way but if you don't bring converts according to the Apostles' Doctrine as found in Acts 19:5, Acts 8:16, Acts 10:48, Acts 2:38, you are false.

If you tell the people that one goes to heaven as soon as he dies which is contrary to John 3:13 you are false.

If you tell the people that Jesus was crucified on Friday and rose early Sunday morning which only made him two nights in the tomb, you are false.

For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so was the Son of man three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. Read Matt. 12:40.

If you said, bread and wine wasn't used in communion, you are false. Read Genesis 14:18.

If you teach or preach that one should abstain from certain meats, you are false and you don't know the truth. 1 Timothy 4:3,4,5.

If you believe that one can put away their husband or wife and be married to another while the first companion lives, you are false and don't know the truth. Mark 10:11-12.

If you believe that the saints can dress like the world and wear gold or pearls and go to beauty parlors or straighten their hair, you are false and don't know the truth. 1 Tim. 2:9-10, 1 Peter 3:1-5.

